HOW RISKY IS IT?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility."

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

RISK RATING

Matco Financial has rated the volatility of this Fund as low to medium.

This rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see sections entitled, "What are the risks of investing in a fund?" and "Who should invest in the Matco Canadian Equity Fund?" in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

NO GUARANTEES

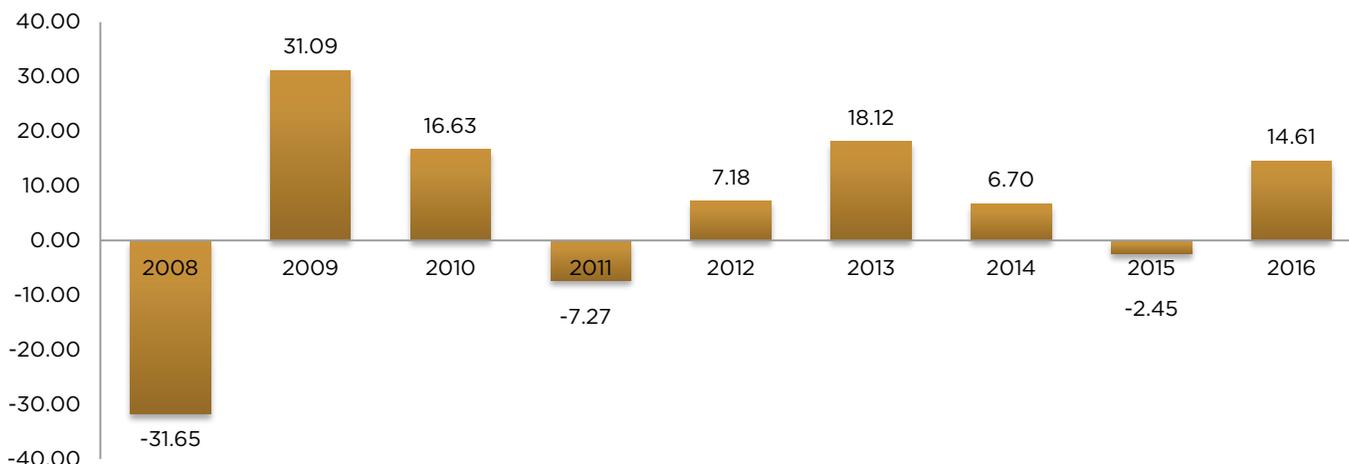

Like most mutual funds, this Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

HOW HAS THE FUND PERFORMED?

This section tells you how the Matco Canadian Equity Fund - Series F shares of the Fund performed over the past 9 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

A WORD ABOUT TAX

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold a fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account. Keep in mind, that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you receive in cash or have them reinvested.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The following table describes the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own, and sell Matco Canadian Equity Fund - Series F shares of the fund. The fees and expenses, including any commissions, can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

SALES CHARGES

You may be required to pay an advisory fee to your representative based on the market value of your assets. The amount of any such applicable fee is determined between yourself and your representative.

FUND EXPENSES

You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns. As of December 31, 2016 the fund's expenses were 1.34% of its value. This equals $13.40 for every $1,000 invested.

	Annual Rate (as a % of the funds value)

More about the Trailing Commission - There is no trailing commission under Series F shares of the fund.

OTHER FEES

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch shares of the fund.

Fee	What You Pay
Short-Term, Switch or Frequent Trading Fees	2.00% of the value of securities you sell or switch within 90 calendar days of when you acquire, switch from one fund to another, or transfer between different types of accounts. This fee goes to the fund.
Fee-for-service program	Series F shares are intended for investors who are participants in a fee-for-service, wrap account program sponsored by certain securities representatives, or direct purchases. You may pay a fee to your representative to participate in such a program.
Referral Fee	Your representative may receive a referral fee at the time you purchase shares. This referral fee arises and is payable at the time an investor opens an account with Matco and is not directly associated with the purchase of a Fund, however, it is possible that the Funds would be acquired through such an account. The amount of such fee is payable directly by Matco and is dependent upon individual referral agreements that may be in place between Matco, the Fund and the representative/referrer.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- » Withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or Fund Facts document, or
- » Cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of purchase

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts documents or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.
